N Prescription-Free Health: Outside-the-Box Strategies for Wellness and Mental Clarity

Speakers: Meredith Patterson, RN, BSN, CRRN

Join neuroscience and medical cannabis RN Meredith Patterson for a discussion of alternative, research-based solutions for optimal brain function and general well-being. Covered content for this course includes:

- How diet affects the brain as well as the body, do nutritional supplements and Paleo diets help or hinder good health?
- How can medical cannabis, including hemp-derived CBD, be used for so many conditions? What are the current laws in Texas governing medical cannabis? How do I use CBD - what type should I take, how do I dose it and shop for the highest quality?
- What happens to the brain when sleep is insufficient and how can I improve the quality of my sleep?
- How does meditation, music and aromatherapy affect the brain? Can mental exercises improve memory?
- Why is physical exercise so important for mental health and avoiding dementia risk in later years?

The class is interactive and participants will come away with practical applications for everyday life, no prescription needed.

3:45pm – 5:30pm

T Tour: Baylor, Scott & White Medical Center (pre-registration required)
